Building a levee from Bacom Point southward to extend to Miami canal, the Canal Dredging Company this week got into full swing. Four dragline excavating machines and a floating dredge with a 100-foot boom and a 2-yard bucket are at work on berm, tow trenches and core and the finish-

Of the four draglines one is a 4-yard machine with 110-foot boom, another carries a 3-yard bucket and an 80-foot boom, another is a 2½-yard machine with a 100-foot boom and the last of the four is a yard and a half machine with a 50-foot boom.

DREDGE CULEBRA TO BE PUT IN SERVICE

The dredge Culebra with which Ben Johnson dug the West Palm Beach canal is one of the three suction dredges Joseph Spadaro & A. Colon Company, Inc., contractors, will use in throwing up 18 miles of Lake Okeechobee levees and making floodway channel between Moore Haven and Fisheating creek. The Culebra is now in St. Lucie canal. The other dredges will come from Savannah.

Mr. Spadaro was in Clewiston and Moore Haven several days the latter part of last week.

matter part of last week in consultation with Engineer J. W. Moore and looking over the site of the work. He is not unfamiliar with this region, for he owns the big hotel at Boca Grande on the west coast.

Soil Is Benefited
By Being Flooded

Trucking land will be benefited by the flood...

As the water table raised, ants and other insects fled to the surface but not fast enough to keep from being drowned, and whole big colonies of ants floated dead on moving water.

This is the case where the water was fresh rainwater. It may not be the case where the water is from the raw sawgrass land and the flatwoods, these being soils of a type in which there are elements that do harm.

IN LIEU OF GOLF

The Editor's Own Column

There are some of us who don't care whether the eighteenth amendment is repealed or not and we don't care whether the Volstead act is modified—we are not interested in light wines and beer, for we will go right on drinking coffee. The only thing that will get our goat is for the coffee growers to declare a selling holiday like the bean growers did. We get our coffee, Mr. Barrett and Katharine went to Sarasota, and left Jack alone at home Sunday, so he went to a restaurant for breakfast and the coffee there didn't suit him, and he was put in a bad humor for lack of his accustomed cup. He went to Clewiston to play golf and work off his bad humor, and forgot about missing his coffee. He didn't get a cup of coffee until he got back home that night, when he made himself a pot and drank three cups.

I ran out of G. Wash. Instant Coffee Saturday night and left an order at Milliken's for Ed Kettner to bring me a can from West Palm. At the restaurant the coffee is drinkable only in the morning, after that it gets stale, so for my second cup Sunday I drove to West Palm to appeal to Olaf Bos. For the next cup I went to Belle Glade. Not caring to risk the coffee at South Bay, I drank it at home. Along about 7:30 p. m. I just had to have another cup of coffee but I didn't know where to go to get it, and just then Gene Barlett, whose family was drinking "nothing but coffee" until he got home, came to my house and I'll make a cup, he volunteered. So I rode with him to his house and his wife put some Maxwell House coffee in a percolator and saved my life.

By that time Mrs. Barrett and Katharine had got back from Sarasota and they kept me supplied with drinking coffee until I got ashamed of imposing on them, and I prevailed on Doc Miller to percolate a few cups. After so long a time Ed Kettner came limping in with the can of instant coffee from West Palm Beach. During the course of all this I had to buy a can of Maxwell House at Hudson's and to some home brewing of that blend, and with the aid of a coffee strainer I devised a percolating can that would do the trick of a Boy Scout on a camping trip.

I so dog-gone near ran out of drinking coffee those two days that finally I was tempted to accept a bottle of W. C. Dendie's home remedy for colds and sore throat. Taking a dose of that sovereign remedy prescribed by old Doctor Franklin P. Boyer, I wrote an article for page one and headed it, "Come On Hurricane, Do Your Darndest—You Can't Blunt Us."

INSPECTOR PROBES SCHOOL SANITATION

SOUTH BAY, Nov. 2.—Russell Broughman, inspector for the State Board of Health, made an inspection of the school buildings of the South Bay schools on Tuesday morning and while here interviewed and conferred with Principal F. B. H. Rowe, Trustee A. O. Walker, Mrs. W. H. Rawie, chairman of health committee of the P. T. A. and Mrs. C. J. Barstow, president of the P. T. A., also with W. H. Rawie, electrician, and the janitor, G. W. Williams, concerning the lack of proper facilities and water in the toilet and wash room buildings.

After a thorough investigation he will make recommendations as to how the system may be put in proper working order. He took a sample of the drinking water, which will be tested immediately.

Some of the school buildings are in poor shape and the school board should be made aware of this.

IT'S A GREAT LIFE—IF YOU DON'T WEAKEN!

Merry Christmas! and Happy New Year too, for that matter, not to mention Armistice Day and Thanksgiving. It looks as if they'll have to postpone Christmas this year—there's going to be a six weeks vacation or postponement of business until some more beans come, and some more sugar cane, and the vacation will be without pay. So why not postpone Christmas the same day.

Night postpone Christmas to March, or the first of April, say, and celebrate it on All Fools' Day the same day.

Putting Christmas off to April or May would bring it long about Easter time, and we'd have a Christmas and a Easter festival both.

But this will be a great count when we get a level all around the lake.

NO NEW OFFICES

The Hillsborough County Bar Association reiterates its opposition to the constitutional amendment creating a seventh Supreme Court Justice. Other organizations of lawyers in the state have taken the same position.

The amendment really has nothing substantial to support it except the desire to create a new office and the people of Florida want political jobs reduced, not increased.

Once created, this new job will be with us "for keeps." It couldn't be abolished by the Legislature, no matter how apparent its necessity may become. It will be a constitutional fixture.

The statewide demand is for fewer offices, not additional offices. The argument for the seventh justice is a new farm in the Supreme Court an "old number" and thus avoid ties in decisions. If that is the desire, the amendment should have been drafted to provide for five justices, not seven.—Tampa Tribune.

ABOUT PEOPLE

F. J. Thomas, formerly of Panama City, at one time in the naval service, is a new farmer in the Bare Beach district. He has five cats of beans go hard in the vine, so he picked 100 bumper Sunday and put them in a car to take to Detroit, Mich., who farmed near the county line, found the lake front and too dry of apples and too dry of apples.
